OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT.

New Delhi, the 25th November 1955

No. 32-Pres/55.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madras Police:—

Name of the Officer and Rank.

Shri Ramanjalu Naidu Muthial Naidu, Police Constable No. 450, Armed Reserve, Chingleput District, Madras.

Statement of Services for which the decoration has been awarded.

At about 8 P.M. on the 8th February, 1955, Constable Muthial Naidu who was on patrol duty was informed by a Sepoy of the Watch and Ward of the Southern Railway that a group of people were tampering with the Railway wagons. He rushed to the spot and found a gang of about 30 persons, some of whom were armed with deadly weapons, breaking open the goods wagons with spears, crowbars etc. The constable ordered them to desist but the leader of the gang, one Sriramulu, who was armed with a spear brandished it at the constable and threatened him with dire consequences if he interfered. The gang started pelting stones at the constable to scare him. The constable was hit several times but continued to remonstrate with the gangsters and ordered them to disperse on pain of being shot. The leader of the gang ridiculed the constable's warning and threatened to kill him with his spear. In the meantime, the gang encouraged by the sight of the single constable being held at bay by their leader, began to loot the wagons. The situation was very critical but sooner than fall in his duty, the constable decided to fight it out single handed with this large and formidable gang. He fired at the leader of the gang who was not hit and attacked the constable with his spear. The constable fired again, this time killing the leader. The infuriated mob then rushed at the constable who stood his ground and fired a third time, whereupon the gang took to their heels leaving the stolen goods and their weapons. Had he not stood firm, constable Muthial Naidu would undoubtedly have been killed and the contents of the goods wagons looted.

Constable Muthial Naidu displayed great courage and coolness and conspicuous devotion to duty in a most dangerous situation.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

C. S. VENKATACHAR,
Secy. to the President.
